

Please do not grant Verizon's petition to deregulate ISPs. This would destroy competition and be a hardship for small ISPs such as the one I now use (BerkshireNet), which is reliable, courteous, and responsive to its customers. I do not want to be forced to use a large provider and be subject to capricious rate increases and a "---- you" attitude. Thank you.